The Will of James Watson, Book JJ 2, Page 141:

St Mary's County
Leonardtown
State of Maryland

In the name of God, Amen. I, James Watson of Sainte Mary's County, in the state of Maryland, planter, being sick and infirm in body but of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, calling to mind the uncertainty of this life, do make and ordain this to be my last will and testament, in manner of form following, viz:

First and principally I recommend my soul unto the hands of Almighty God, and my body to the earth to be decently buried at the discretion of my executors hereafter mentioned.

Whereas I have given to my two eldest sons Eleazer Watson and Azariah Watson seventy pounds in real and personal property and to my other children (already married) to wit: to Zachariah Watson, to James Green Watson, to Margaret Reeves, to Susanna Cooke and Muriel Brookbank ten pounds each in personal property.

Now it being my will and intention that the whole of my children, as well as those that are already married as those that are unmarried, and the children of such as are now, or may at my death be dead, Should have an equal share of my estate including what I have already given as above mentioned.

I give and bequeath to my sons Henry Watson and Joseph Watson, so long as each or either of them shall live single, a joint and equal interest with my three daughters Elizabeth Watson, Sarah Watson and Mary Watson during the natural life of each or either of my said daughters, in all the lands and tenements whereof I am at present possessed after the expiration of the natural life of my three single daughters above mentioned, my will and desire is that all my lands shall be sold and the money arising therefrom, divided among my children so that they may all have an equal part of my estate.

Item. I will and desire that my executors shall pay a legacy of ten pounds each to Tephoriah Watson, to Elizabeth Watson, to Sarah Watson and to Mary Watson immediately after my death. Lastly, I constitute and appoint my sons Henry Watson and Joseph Watson joint executors of this my last will and testament evoking all other will or wills by me heretofore made. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this twenty sixth day of January, Ann Dom 1795

Signed, sealed and acknowledged by James Watson, the testator in the presense of the following witnesses: Stephen Cawood, William Somerhill, John Watson

Proved 31st day December 1795 foregoing witnesses "made oath on the holy angels of Almighty God," that they did see testator sign his name, etc.
